activu
vis|ability

What is vis|ability Capture Client?

The Capture Client agent is an encoding tool that enables vis|ability to acquire content from any network connected computer and deliver that content to any defined end point. It is able to intake an entire desktop, one or multiple screens, a single application, or predefined are of the desktop- all while maintaining high security and network efficiency.
✔ Flexible Content Capture: Supports capturing entire desktops, specific screens, individual applications, or predefined desktop areas to meet diverse operational needs.

✔ Secure and Efficient Encoding: Maintains high security and network efficiency while encoding and transmitting content across the vis|ability platform.

Key Benefits

➕ Enhanced Collaboration: Enables seamless sharing of critical visual information across endpoints, improving teamwork and decision-making.

➕ Operational Flexibility: Adapts to various use cases by capturing and delivering exactly what's needed, from a single application to multiple screens.

➕ Streamlined Integration: Simplifies content acquisition from any network-connected computer, ensuring compatibility and ease of use within existing workflows.

Crisis Room

Integrated Operations Center

Crisis Room

Integrated Operations Center